Highway through land of Harris

In answer to a petition of several of the inhabitants of this Town, we have laid out a private or particular way, of two rods wide, beginning at the highway near the house of Thomas Richardson, next to the highway, and then coming partly on the land of John Crow as the path is trodden, and so passing on and turning northwesterly on the northeast of an oak stump and stones about it, and an heap of stones, to the foot of the hill, & then further northwesterly on the line between the land of said Richardson, and land of said Crow; one rod on each, and so on the same course on the line between the land of John Mansur and land of Joseph Mullican to a little hill near Haverhill former line, then turning northwardly, and winding the hill, to land of Daniel M. Cleary, then westerly on land of John Harris to the corner of the fence which encloseth said Daniel M. Cleary's field, then northwardly through land of said M. Cleary, and land of John Mullican, and land of Capt. Joshua Swan, on the west of several heaps of stones, and trees marked, to the way which was laid out in the year 1735, which leads to the house of Samuel Palmer - and also another private or particular way of two rods wide from the former highway through the land of Samuel Stevens and land of Benjamin Stevens and of Benjamin Barker on the west of several trees marked, and heaps of stones, till we come into the road near the house of Jonathan Barker.

Parker's road 1750.

127. Methuen, December the 28 day, 1750. Unto the selectmen of Methuen. The prayer of your humble petitioners sheweth, that whereas, in the division of our farm there is a reserve

of land for our own particular use for a road through our farm, from Merrimack River out to

Dracut road, we are humbly of opinion that the above said way that we have reserved for our private use, may be of public use both for us, the subscribers and others, if that Methuen lay it out and accept as a Town highway; on consideration whereof, we, your humble petitioners pray that you would view the above said way, and make return to the Town for acceptance;

also desire that the Town would lay us a way from the river to meet with Dracut way newly laid through Mr. Samuel Varnum's land and Kendall Parker's land, to Dracut line.

We the subscribers do oblige ourselves to give the land of said way.

Jonathan Parker

John Parker

David Parker

In answer to this petition, we the subscribers have laid out two roads as followeth.

First, beginning at the road that leads to Dracut, bounded on the west side on Dracut line, three poles wide through John Parker's land, to a poplar tree, thence through Jonathan Parker's land, east side of several marked trees to David Parker's land, thence partly on said David's land and partly on Jonathan Parker's land, until it comes within ten poles of Merrimack River; thence on Timothy Parker's land to Merrimack River, widening on the east side, until it comes to the width of six poles on the bank of the river. And also another road two poles wide, beginning at the above said road about twelve poles on the river westerly through David Parker's land on the south side of several marked trees, until it comes to Dracut line to meet the road laid out by Dracut.

Laid out by us the subscribers January 28, 1750.
