Agreeable to a late vote of the Town of Methuen at their Annual Meeting in March last –

We the Subscribers have laid out an addition to the road by Merrimack River between the house of Aaron Sawyer & the house of Samuel Richardson so as to make the Said road of sufficient width and bounded the same as follows – Beginning at a stake & stones by land of Aaron Sawyer land making the Said addition sixteen links wide at the last mentioned bounds thence Southwardly on Said Sawyer land twenty poles & twenty links to a bunch of cherry trees near the line of Thomas Brown land making the Said addition sixteen links wide at the Sad cherry trees. Thence Southwardly on

Thomas Brown's land twenty four poles to an oil nut tree by the lane leading to Said

Brown House, making the Said addition twenty links wide at Said Oil nut thence on Said Brown's land seven poles & three quarters of a pole coming to a point at an

Elm tree by the old road, we have also laid out an addition to the road between the house of Jonathan Griffen & the house of Capt Joseph Griffen and bounded the same as follows beginning at a stake and stones by the old road thence Southerly on

Jonathan Griffen's land about eight poles to a stake & stone making Said addition one pole wide at the last mentioned bound, opposite to the place where the old road is mostly worked away. Thence on Said Griffen's land twenty four poles to a stake and stones coming to a point at the old road.
